CHESS

This friendly informal group meets for tea and chess in Wimbledon Village. Some knowledge of chess will be helpful; not suitable for complete beginners. Monthly on the second Tuesday 2.00 - 5.00 pm.

CRIBBAGE

For 2, 3 or 4 players. Complete beginners welcome. Meet in members' houses twice a month on Tuesdays 2.30-4.30pm.

CYCLING

We meet fortnightly on Monday mornings for a ride along back roads and cycle paths, around 20-30 miles, with sometimes a longer ride. There are always options for people to break their journey at a station. We normally start at the Wimbledon Windmill café or at the Gooseberry Bush café on Kingston Road.

GARDENING

Members share garden experience, knowledge, cuttings, seedlings etc. Outside visits are arranged in Spring, Summer and Autumn.

Last Wednesday of each month 10.30am - 12.30pm. Lower Morden not far from Beverley roundabout. Nearest bus routes 163, 293, 413, 93.

GOLF BUDDIES

Are you interested in playing golf but not good enough to play in a club? If you would like to have company in your efforts to play a round, do come and join us. We meet every third Monday at 10.30 am, currently at Horton Park Golf Club.

LONDON WALKS

We meet on the first and third Friday of each month from February to November at 10.15 at Wimbledon station. The walks are generally of 4 to 5 miles and are designed to be exploratory, not guided historical walks. They are nearly always within the Freedom pass area.

The focus of the walks is to take some exercise, to enjoy the social side of walking with others and to discover new places in London.

Members of the group are expected to take turns in choosing and leading the walks. There are lots of suggestions for walks on line and in books available in local libraries.

LOOSE ENDERS

Every few months the group gets together in a member's home and plans our programme, which includes theatre trips and visits to places of interest. We normally include lunch. A shared lunch is organised every 4 months or so. We meet about twice a month, always on Saturday.

NORDIC WALKING

Nordic Walking is fun and sociable. It is also a specific fitness technique with the aim of improving physical fitness and wellbeing. It uses poles to add to the benefits of normal walks. Using the poles correctly helps to propel the walker along, so the walker works harder than usual but the support given by the poles makes it feel easier. To get the most out of Nordic Walking, we run introductory courses which teach the correct use of poles, walking technique and posture for which poles are provided. Weekly, alternating Tuesdays and Wednesdays, starting 9.30 am. Mostly on Wimbledon Common, but occasionally further afield.

QI GONG, INTRODUCTION TO

Qi Gong can be described as a meditation for the body, or health through movement. It is beneficial for relaxation, fitness and longevity. It is rooted in the principles of Traditional Chinese Medicine and consists of movements which improve posture and balance. It brings many health benefits, including well-being, energy and a strengthening of the immune system. Suitable for people of all ages, of any body shape or fitness level. The main requirements are an open mind and a commitment to do regular practice between sessions. Led by a qualified Qi Gong instructor. Starting late September, weekly, Wednesday, 9.30 am, central Wimbledon.

RACKETBALL

Racketball is THE growing sport being actively taken up by seniors. We are keen to promote it, having found the non-sporty and those who have forgotten they were are enjoying the exercise. Racketball is played on a squash court but the racket and ball are similar in size to those used in tennis so the game is slower than squash and is appropriate for all ages and abilities. We provide coaching sessions and loan of equipment. Court hire £4.00/hr - cost shared by members and is usually around £2 each per hour.

Weekly, Thursdays 3.00 to 4.00 pm (but please check as times may vary). Wimbledon Lakeside Squash Club, Church Road, Wimbledon SW19 5AG (entrance opposite the All England Lawn Tennis Club). 493 bus.

SCRABBLE

This group aims to help you enjoy the game, improve your word-power and amaze your friends with your knowledge of two-letter words.

Alternate Mondays at 2.00pm in Raynes Park.

This group encourages people of all abilities to enjoy Table Tennis and have fun. There may be a possibility of some coaching in due course. These are not drop-in sessions, so please phone/email if you are interested.

Weekly Wednesdays 9.00am - 11.30am. Colliers Wood Community Centre 66-72 High Street, Colliers Wood (short walk from tube station). Adjacent car park. Buses 57, 131 and 219 stop within a 2 minute walk. Charge of £1.00 per session towards room.

As for Table Tennis (1) above but meets Fridays (but not first Friday of month) 3.00pm - 5.00pm. venue as for Table Tennis (1) above.

TENNIS

Free! Join our tennis group so we can always have someone to play. Every Monday and Thursday, weather permitting, 9.30 am John Innes Gardens, Mostyn Road, Merton Park.

WALKING GROUP 4

This is a group for people who love to plan and lead walks as well as enjoying walking through the many and varied locations readily accessible from Merton. Group members take it in turns to lead the walks, singly or jointly, to ensure an interesting mix of walks features in each quarterly programme. The fortnightly walks rotate between Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, giving members the chance to participate despite other regular commitments.

The group started in October 2014 and has enjoyed a varied programme of walks along the Thames and other rivers and canals, sections of the London Loop and Capital Ring, parks and commons and many other routes. The walks are between 5 and 7 miles long, include a lunch stop and are all reached by public transport.

CURRENT AFFAIRS AND HISTORYCURRENT AFFAIRS (1)

A discussion group dealing with the background to current affairs. Members will be encouraged to start each meeting with a little basic research before the discussion gets going. We have covered a wide variety of subjects, for example: the Economy, MPs' expenses, Brexit, Education, the Prison System.

Alternate Wednesdays 10.30am - 12.00 noon Merton Hall Road, Wimbledon

CURRENT AFFAIRS (2)

The group discusses recent events in the news as well as debating issues such as drug legislation, Britain's foreign policy, the Middle East conflict and the BBC.

Alternate Mondays 2.30pm - 4.30pm. Wilton Grove.

CURRENT AFFAIRS (3)

Members discuss ongoing and current issues. Sometimes, if a member has a special interest in a subject or has worked in a specific area, we may ask that member to talk about the NHS, education, immigration, etc. but otherwise there is general discussion. The aim is to give each member an opportunity to raise a subject should they wish.

Alternate Mondays 2.30pm. Location Merton Park.

CURRENT AFFAIRS (4)

The first half of our meetings is devoted to a general discussion on the burning issues of the day while the second half concentrates on a special topic which will have been agreed at the previous meeting. Recent special topics have included populism, genetic manipulation, China, prison reform and a better understanding of Islam. We also arrange occasional visits which have included County Hall, the House of Commons, the Supreme Court and the Wimbledon Magistrates' Court. Members must be willing to research and be prepared to lead the discussion on a special topic from time to time.

The group meets on the first and third Tuesdays of the month. 2.00 pm. Dundonald Park.

CURRENT AFFAIRS (5)

During the first half of our meeting we have a general discussion about events and issues in the news. In the second half, discussion focuses on a single topical issue selected by the group at the previous meeting (and on which group members will hopefully do some reading/research). We also make occasional group visits to organisations which play an important role in the running of society, such as national and local government, the legal system, the health service, transport, and the financial and commercial sectors.

Monthly on the first Monday of each month in Merton Park. 2.00pm for about two hours.

CURRENT AFFAIRS (6)

We are a new group, set up to discuss current affairs. We are looking for some more U3A members to join us. Like some of the other groups, we will spend the first hour discussing recent events and issues. In the second hour, we will discuss in depth a topic, which we will have chosen at the end of the previous meeting. Each member will research the topic using articles in newspapers, magazines and the internet before the next meeting.

We meet once a month on a Wednesday at 2.30 pm in the homes of some members.

FAMILY HISTORY (1) - Finding Your Roots

Members undertake individual family history research and need to be computer literate, in order to take advantage of the many on-line resources for family history and computerised sources at centres such as the National Archives at Kew. Monthly on Wednesdays 2.30pm - 4.00pm. Southfields.

FAMILY HISTORY (2)

A self-help group of individuals interested in finding out about their ancestors. Whilst it is possible to undertake research without a computer, it is much easier these days if one can get on-line in order to take advantage of the ever increasing resources available via the internet, so computer literacy is almost essential. Some members of the group are in the early stages of research but the group leader and at least one other member of the group have been investigating their own family histories for many years so hopefully can help members avoid some of the pitfalls and dead-ends which we inevitably encounter.

Monthly on Thursday from 2.00-4.00pm, Cannon Hill area, unrestricted parking. 164 bus from Wimbledon/Morden (St. James Church) or 413 from Morden/Sutton (Northway or Cherrywood Lane).

SHARING YOUR FAMILY HISTORY

An experienced family historian and creative writing teacher is leading a group aimed at those who have already researched their family history but would like support in presenting their discoveries in a style and format that can easily be shared with others and that will interest and engage its readers. Group members are coached towards this within a collaborative learning environment.

First Wednesday of every month, throughout the year. 10.30am - 12.00noon. Wimbledon/Merton Abbey and occasionally in Mitcham.

RESEARCHING YOUR FAMILY HISTORY

This group follows a programme designed to develop and extend the research skills, understanding and knowledge that help family historians have confidence in the integrity of their personal research. Overcoming our research "blocks" is a key focus

Monthly on 2nd Tuesday. 10.15am - 12.15pm. Mansel Road Centre, Mansel Road, Wimbledon (next to Wimbledon High School). 8 minute walk from Wimbledon Station. Meter parking Mansel Road. There is a small charge for the room hire (shared between group members).

HISTORY IN CONTEXT

This group is run as a workshop with everybody contributing. It comes to the end of its present programme in November 2017 and the group will discuss at its December meeting what it wants to do next.

We meet monthly on Tuesday afternoons from 2.00pm with a break for tea and biscuits.

Close to Wimbledon Park tube station.

HOW THE PAST HAS FORMED US

This group will study and discuss how our human lives and society have been shaped by the past. Subjects chosen by the group are introduced by members in turn, lead into exploration of the historical impact of any aspect of the natural world, or human culture, and how that past impact affects the way we think and act today.

Monthly Tuesdays 10.30am - 12.30pm at Linden Lodge School, 61 Princes Way, Wimbledon, SW19. 10 minute walk up a steep hill from Southfields Tube station. 39 & 493 buses go almost past the door and there is some free street parking, though increasingly far from the school.

A YEAR IN HISTORY

We choose a year and members prepare a presentation on any topic of their choice relevant to that year, as much latitude as required being allowed for explanations of cause and effect. We typically spend five sessions or more on a chosen year, and presentations average about 40 minutes. Our approach is unsystematic, but not un scholarly, and the variety of presentations is a delight.

Monthly 2nd and 4th Tuesdays. 10.00am -12.00pm. The group alternates venues in Raynes Park and Merton Park.

GENERAL HISTORY

The format of our meetings can either be a presentation (if a group member wishes to make one) or DVDs on historical and related themes, followed by discussion. Meets Wednesday 2.30-4.30 pm. Raynes Park.

NEW FRONTIERS

This is an opportunity to see some of the more interesting video lectures now offered on the web by leading universities and educational organisations. They are sometimes part of normal coursework, but more often aimed at non-specialists wishing to know more about different things. It is hoped to cover a wide variety of subject areas and to go into some detail, but specialised knowledge is not required to gain enlightenment - even if the going may be difficult at times! The group leader will choose and introduce the initial talks and encourage discussion.

Monthly on Monday 10.00am. Near Wimbledon Park Tube. Tea and biscuits.

SPEAKING & DEBATING

Meetings will include developing our speaking skills and confidence, and debates of various types. The scope for variety is endless. The group will be enjoyed both by those wishing to learn the art of effective speaking and by those who enjoy speaking and debating.

Alternate Thursdays 2.00 pm-4.00pm. Colliers Wood Community Centre 66-72 High Street, Colliers Wood SW19 2BY (near tube station) Adjacent car park. Buses 57, 131 and 219 stop within a 2 minute walk. Charge of £1.00 per session towards room hire.

Alternate Thursdays 10.30am - 12.00noon. Various venues.

FRANCE ENCORE

For those with at least a basic knowledge of the French language and grammar. The aim is to use short extracts from the French media to foster the ability to participate fluently and intuitively in French conversation covering a range of topics.

FRENCH ADVANCED CONVERSATION

In a relaxed atmosphere you will be encouraged to speak French and gradually become more confident and fluent, with increasing understanding. Learn how to listen for the general meaning, not translating word for word, so that you can continue to participate in any conversation.

Alternate Thursdays 10.00am - 12.00noon. Border Wimbledon/Kingston. 57 bus stops opposite.

FRENCH CONVERSATION FOR IMPROVERS

A friendly informal group with the aim of improving members' fluency. We start each meeting with a general discussion of individual activities/topical items of interest then discuss prepared questions on a French novel. New members welcome.

GERMAN INTERMEDIATE

Alternate Thursdays 2.00pm - 4.00pm. Raynes Park area.

GERMAN INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED CONVERSATION

The intention is to get people to chat to each other in a relaxed atmosphere, with topical themes or members' special interests as starting points. We'll use articles from German media and short stories, translate if necessary, discuss. Grammar can be investigated if required.

Meet fortnightly on Tuesdays, 10.00am - 11.30am. Halfway between Wimbledon and South Wimbledon stations. Buses 93, 57, 131, 219 stop on Broadway (Wimbledon Theatre stop).

ITALIAN EASY CONVERSATION

For those with some basic knowledge of Italian. Alternate Wednesdays 10.30am - 12.00noon. Raynes Park area.

ITALIAN INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED

A friendly self-help group, some of whose members take it in turns to run the sessions. Each session includes some conversation, reading, listening and grammar. A good basic knowledge of Italian is required. We meet on alternate Mondays, 10.00 am to 12.00noon in Drake House, Central Wimbledon. New members are welcome.

LATIN INTERMEDIATE

The group has been running successfully for 5 years but we can accommodate newcomers provided they have a basic knowledge of Latin grammar, albeit rusty. We revise points of grammar and practise the language in order to enjoy reading and discussing Latin texts in a relaxed atmosphere.

Alternate Wednesdays. 2.00pm - 4.00pm. Wimbledon Chase. Bus route: 163, 164, 152, K5.

MUSIC

JAZZ APPRECIATION

Our group meets in a member's home on the last Friday of each month from 2.30-4.30pm to learn about all the many facets of jazz, through listening to and discussing music tracks we have discovered on different media and can share with other group members. Our programme is guided by the U3A National Jazz Co-ordinator, but its development is very much our own (more details on our U3A webpage).

OPERA APPRECIATION

Sessions are held in a cinema environment, and usually are about 2 hours. Longer operas may cover more than one session. A wide variety of operas are shown on DVDs with subtitles, preceded by an introduction and followed (if time) by a discussion of the piece and its interpretation.

Sessions are on alternate Thursday afternoons, starting at 2.00 pm prompt. The venue is off The Ridgway, near the 200 bus route; limited car parking available.

RECORDER GROUPS:

Merton U3A Recorder Classes range from a descant class for complete beginners to an Ensemble for advanced players (descant, treble, tenor, base). PHILOSOPHY

The Philosophy Group meets on alternative Wednesday mornings at Edge Hill (off road parking available). Members do not need to have a philosophical background, but should be interested in the questions which philosophy asks. It is a highly participative group, and members volunteer to introduce subjects for discussion.

PLAYREADING

Our group reads whole plays at a meeting without rehearsal. Members take it in turns to choose the play, prepare the session, cast the parts to ensure everyone has a good turn at reading. We borrow playsets from the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama and we also use local libraries. Thanks to the generosity of Merton U3A, who pay the membership fee, the group is only responsible for the fee for hire at each session, which is usually only £1.50 per person inclusive of postage. We meet monthly on a Friday from 10.00am. Near Wimbledon Park Tube. Break for tea/coffee and biscuits halfway through.

POETRY APPRECIATION

Members of the group take turns to introduce the poet/topic and everyone chooses poems to read and discuss. We have looked at a varied range of poetry, including the Metaphysical poets, Kipling and Tennyson.

Alternate Mondays 2.00pm - 4.00pm at various venues on or near Ridgway, Wimbledon. Bus 200.

READ, LISTEN, WATCH & DISCUSS

This is a friendly and informal self-help group where members enjoy discussing the life and times of a contemporary author through his or her work, a book or essay or poem, etc., giving members ample time to read and select points of discussion. New members very welcome.

Last Tuesday of the month 2.30pm - 4.00pm. Worple Road. Bus 57 & 131.

READING OVID'S 'METAMORPHOSES'

"Metamorphoses" is Ovid's epic account of Greek and Roman myths, presented as a single narrative from the Creation to his own day, and linked by the theme of 'changes of shape'. Sentimental, whimsical, erotic, violent, full of pathos – the stories evoke a wide range of emotions, displaying Ovid's remarkable imagination and wit. We will read the book in David Raeburn's modern verse translation, and some stories in the 1567 translation by Arthur Golding or the adapted versions of Ted Hughes.

3rd Thursday of each month, 10.30 a.m., Raynes Park, restarting January.

READING PLATO'S 'REPUBLIC'

We read and discuss Robin Waterfield's translation of Plato's "Republic" (OUP £7.99). Waterfield interprets a crucial Greek word in its widest sense and regards the book as a treatise on 'morality', not more narrowly 'justice'. "Republic", then, is Plato's wide-ranging attempt to define how an individual can live the good life, and to demonstrate that one gains in happiness by being moral, whether or not being moral brings any other advantages.

3rd Tuesday each month, 10.15am-12.45pm, Raynes Park.

READING SHORT STORIES

We will be reading from 'Loss', a collection of stories by contemporary writers, selected by Victoria Hislop and described by The Times as 'a collection so good it's essential'. At each meeting a story, selected by a member, is presented, read and discussed.

2nd and 4th Mondays of each month. 10.30am to 12.00noon. Worple Road (near 57 and 131 bus stops), or Raynes Park (2 minutes from station and buses 57, 131, 152, 163 and 200). Parking difficult at both venues.

THEATRE

The aim is to introduce the members to types of theatre and venues they would not normally choose to book for themselves. Members take it in turn to plan, book and co-ordinate each event. We meet for a tea, at the Wimbledon Guild cafe (lovely cakes!) after 2/3 plays to have a group discussion.

UNDERSTANDING SHAKESPEARE

In-depth study of Shakespeare plays. Monthly Fridays 10.00am. Worple Road Wimbledon.

CRAFTS AND ART

ART AND DESIGN

Group sessions of drawing and painting incorporating the formal elements of art and design using water based paints and mixed media materials. The sessions will cover knowledge of colour and of composition in drawing - using line, tone, pattern and perspective. The group is not suitable for absolute beginners and is aimed at those with some previous knowledge of the subject. There will be a nominal charge at the start of the course to cover the cost of venue and refreshments. Max group size 14.

CREATIVE TEXTILES & THREAD

This is a new group of people who enjoy doing things with textiles and thread. This could be anything from the very practical to highly decorative work. The emphasis will be on gaining new skills and combining them imaginatively. We will explore traditional and newer techniques, both academically and practically by

- visiting exhibitions, museums and galleries;
- running workshops to learn or improve our skills (using group members expertise and online or print resources); and
- having design sessions - which could be anything from colour theory to planning individual or group projects.

Meets 4th Wednesday monthly at 2 pm in members' homes, mainly in Wimbledon/Merton Park area.

PAINTING & SKETCHING

This group is aimed at those with any level of experience or ability who share a love of putting pen, pencil, brush or whatever to paper!

Sessions have a focus (e.g. still life) which group members are encouraged to approach from their own perceptions/medium/level of expertise, and the emphasis is on furthering current skills and learning new ones in a mutually supportive environment – and having fun! Thursdays 2.00 – 4.00pm

IT MUTUAL HELP

For PC/Windows users, (but possibly straying into Android phones/tablets). Mainly finding our way around Windows or making programs do what we want them to do. Members raise an issue where they have a problem, or would like to do more. If David doesn't know the answer, together we research and find a solution. e.g.

- Understanding and responding to Windows messages
- Understanding what the clipboard does
- Using email and browsing the web
- Getting smarter in Word processing or spreadsheets
- Broadband connection via Wireless router and other ways to connect
- Backup to portable disk drives or the Cloud

Meet alternate Tuesdays 2.15pm - 4.15pm. Roehampton. Parking unrestricted in afternoon. New members welcome regardless of IT skills (or lack of them).

POPULAR SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

You don't need to have a background in science to join us, just an enquiring mind. We meet on Thursdays from 10.30 am to 12.30 pm every four weeks at Colliers Wood Community Centre.

We cover a very wide range of subjects – from how our bodies function to astronomy, and renewable energy sources to how the internet works – anything that interests us. We have talks given by visiting speakers and some of our members, discussions covering popular and topical science and technology and we are also planning visits to places and exhibitions of interest.

We are a thriving and welcoming group, and are very happy for you to come and try us out. We share the costs of room hire and refreshments (about £1 a meeting). The Centre is easy to get to on public transport and has full disabled access.

WHY NOT START AN INTEREST GROUP?

U3As are run entirely for their members by their members on a volunteer basis. Each interest group is therefore facilitated by a volunteer leader or convenor—sometimes two people share the role. Our groups are informal and there are no qualifications or examinations.

Facilitating a group can be fun and rewarding. Some group leaders are knowledgeable in the subject, but in many cases groups can be convened simply by members with an interest in the subject and the willingness to organise a group.

There is still a demand for more Languages, Science, Music, Local History and 'intellectually stimulating' activities. We also plan to start more activities in the Mitcham area.

Section Leaders ensure that vacancies within groups are matched with people waiting to join, and also provide a port of call for existing and potential Group Convenors seeking advice. Support is available for publicity, finding venues, equipment/resources and tips on running a shared learning group or activity. If you have a particular interest and wish to form a group, please contact the appropriate Section Leader or Groups Co-ordinator, Jon Sheppard (see contact details on p.1).

Resources: Various types of support are also available from U3A National Office, including a team of Subject Advisers, a range of training workshops, advice sheets and other publications, and a Resource Centre of audio visual materials that can be borrowed free of charge.

In addition, there's a wealth of free online resources available, including online courses in a wide range of topics. Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) are online modular courses developed by leading universities and organisations around the world. MOOCs can be used as the basis of a short course or to enhance longer-term studies. U3A National Office has set up a dedicated MOOCs website.

Schedules: Ongoing groups generally meet weekly, fortnightly or monthly, and some close for a few weeks over the summer. Short courses, Study Days and Shared Learning Projects can occur at any time of the year. Most activities take place during the day Monday - Friday, but a few take place in the evenings and at weekends.

Venues: Many groups meet in members' houses, but don't let the inability to meet in your own home put you off; there are other options depending on the activity. Groups that require more space meet in other local venues e.g. Colliers Wood Community Centre, Drake House, or some other public space.

Costs: Group facilitators offer their services free of charge, whether it is their expertise or a room in their home or help with administration, and this enables the annual subscription to be kept low. Small contributions may be requested towards expenses such as stationery or venue hire.

OTHER LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Our research indicates that many of our members are very busy in retirement and may struggle with long-term commitments. Therefore, in addition to the longer-term groups, we encourage members to consider short courses and other activities which provide an opportunity for more structured, time-limited learning.

SHORT COURSES:

Groups get together, typically for about 4-8 weeks, to study a particular topic or learn a new skill. Sometimes short courses have led to the formation of longer-term groups.

Examples have included Exploring Memory; Highlights of Modern Astronomy; Nordic walking; Pilates; Tap dancing.

IN OUR TIME:

In Our Time is a programme of time limited activities such as short courses which treats subjects or issues in depth. These have included the EU Referendum, English Law-Leading Cases, Legal Quandaries, The British Constitution, Cosmology and Islam In Our Time.

VISITS:

Group visits to places of interest benefit from group rates on admission costs, and often include a guided tour or talk. Our Visits Organisers lead about 1-2 visits per month to venues that are easily accessible by public transport in and around London. Also look out for visits organised by National Office, regional and local networks.

MONTHLY MEETINGS AND TALKS:

Monthly Meetings are held on the second Friday of each month. Doors open at 1.30pm with tea/coffee and biscuits. (Admission charge £1.00). Following short announcements about news and events of interest to members, there is an opportunity to hear a talk, given either by an outside speaker or U3A member, from 2-3pm at Drake House, 44 St George's Road, Wimbledon.

STUDY DAYS:

These comprise a full day of talks or other learning activities, enabling more in-depth coverage of a given theme. Speakers tend to be outside specialists. For reasons of cost-effectiveness, Study Days are usually organised on a national, regional or network basis.

WORKSHOPS:

These are usually full-day events organised by U3A National Office or Regional/Network committees to provide free training to members on specific topics of importance to the effective running of U3As.

SUMMER SCHOOLS:

Involving 3-4 days of talks and other learning activities on various themes, summer schools tend to be residential. Costs are minimized by taking advantage of university or other premises during holiday periods, and speakers are generally U3A members. U3A National Office organises 2 summer schools in Cirencester, plus the Annual Science Seminar in Telford. The South-East Region summer school is in Chichester. The London Region 3-day non-residential summer school is in central London.

RESEARCH:

Regarded by U3A as an important method of learning, research can either be conducted entirely by U3A members, or it can involve U3A members collaborating with external organisations – either as research assistants or as research subjects. Shared Learning Projects (SLPs) offer members from several U3As an opportunity to collaborate for about three months on a research project, usually in partnership with established institutions such as museums, libraries, stately homes, universities, charities etc. The results of the research may include a presentation, publication, database or some other useful output. The U3A national Research Database provides details on all known research projects involving U3A members. Contact our Research Project Adviser for further information.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Members are encouraged to participate in the various social activities on offer in order to meet fellow members, broaden their U3A experience, and have a good time.

New Members' Introduction Events: We urge our new members to attend these sessions so that they can learn how to get the best out of U3A.

Group Convenors' Lunch: An opportunity for our Committee to thank group convenors for their invaluable contribution, and also to provide an opportunity for networking and exchange/development of good ideas.

Christmas Lunch: Merton U3A's main social event of the year

Social Get-Togethers: lunches, dinners, coffee mornings, teas, theatre visits and more -- organised in members' homes or local hostelrys and other venues throughout the year.

National, regional and local network events: e.g. concerts, quizzes and more.

PS: Volunteering is a good way of getting to know other members and have some fun.

THE U3A STORY

What is the Third Age?

The First Age of learning refers to compulsory learning at school. The Second Age involves learning related to work and family responsibilities. The Third Age refers to retirement and a presumed freedom to pursue learning for pleasure. In fact, there are no hard boundaries and the U3A movement in Britain has no upper or lower age limits, but members are not in full-time paid employment.

French beginnings

In 1968, the French government passed legislation making universities responsible for the delivery of lifelong learning. In 1972, a group of retired people met at a summer school organised at the University of Toulouse. It was so popular, that the university put on further courses during the forthcoming academic year. The first Université du Troisième Age (UTA) was open to anyone who had reached statutory retirement age and was prepared to pay a nominal fee. The concept of the University of the Third Age (U3A) was therefore born.

Learning activities took place in daytime and for five days a week during the academic year. Although lectures were combined with debates, field trips, recreational and physical activities, university staff were responsible for curricula and teaching and maintaining high academic standards, thus justifying the "university" label. The movement quickly gained international recognition, with the French model being adopted within 3 years by Belgium, Switzerland, Poland, Italy, Spain and Quebec in Canada.

British adaptation

In 1981, the first U3A was established in Cambridge, and quickly spread to other towns, but the British U3As changed to an independent self-help approach, without support from the state or established academic institutions.

Whilst not tied in to any university structure, the name stuck, and the concept was more like the mediaeval universities where people got together in small groups to learn about a shared interest. As expressed by Peter Laslett, a Cambridge academic and one of the co-founders of U3A in Britain, there should be "no distinction between those who teach and those who learn, where as much as possible of the activity is voluntary".

The U3A took off in England after a 5-minute talk on Radio 4's "You and Yours" in 1982 by Eric Midwinter, another co-founder. From that talk he had about 400 letters from people asking how they could join a U3A. His answer was "you'll have to set one up yourself!"

Local U3As in Britain therefore became learning co-operatives of older people, enabling members to learn from each other by sharing their knowledge, skills and experience. Each U3A is run by its own members on an entirely volunteer basis.

There are now over 1,000 U3As and more than 400,000 members in the UK. Although all local U3As are individual charities and operationally independent, they are members of The Third Age Trust, the umbrella body which represents all British U3As at national and international levels, promotes the Objects and Principles of the U3A Movement, and offers a range of additional activities and services to support local U3As.

Merton U3A was one of the first to be set up, in 1983, and Dianne Norton, who was at that time employed by Age Concern, provided space in her house in Wimbledon for the first UK national office. We now have nearly 900 members. In addition to support from the Third Age Trust, Merton U3A also benefits from membership of networks in the greater London Region, SW London and Surrey.

Global expansion

The U3A has become one of the most successful movements in later-life learning. It has spread across the whole world with groups on every continent, some following the French model of being connected to universities, some following the British model of independent groups, and some taking a mixed approach.
